

Cryp-Tac-Toe

Cryp-Tac-Toe is a Crypto Betting Game based on the classic of Tic-Tac-Toe. In Cryp-Tac-Toe, you are assigned X's or O's and getting 3 in a Row result in a winner. Place a bet (min of $5) and choose a placement to start the game, and wait for it to be played out by others; if you are on the winning team, you will end up splitting the bets between your team of those on the losing team.

Rules:

- You must place a bet with every Placement
- You can only make One (1) Move Per GAME
- If you are on the winning team, you will receive your portion of the other teams bets automatically.
 - If you are on the losing team, your bet is split amongst the winning team
 - If the game draws in a Cats-Eye (no move could make a winner), the bets are returned to their owners and the game resets.

1% of all bets is collected by The Gas Station for development and longevity of the ecosystem.
